

ORANGE COUNTY
Rape Crisis Center

ANNUAL REPORT
2010-2011

A walk through our offices offers a glimpse into the breadth of what we accomplish each day. There's laughter from the Community Education team as they try out ideas for a new middle school program. Around the corner, a group of earnest volunteers are in the middle of a training session, learning active listening skills to support callers on our 24-hour help line. Down the hall, a staff member meets with a client to discuss one of our new alternative healing support groups.

Each day brings something new and exciting for our staff and the community we serve. From one person's story of healing to a class of 3rd graders learning how to "say no, get away, and tell someone," we see the results of this important work every day.

Last year we served 410 clients. Men and women of all backgrounds found support through our 24-hour help line, therapy programs, and support groups. Additionally, we reached 10,736 people through our Community Education programs, which teach young people and adults how to recognize and prevent sexual violence.

A 2010 survey from the Centers for Disease Control found that 1 in 5 women are raped over the course of their lives. The same study showed that nearly half of all women—and 1 in 5 men—experience some form of sexual violence, whether through sexual coercion, unwanted touch, or sexual harassment. These are the facts that drive us to educate our community about all forms of sexual violence. We help every person who walks through our door, and all of the Center's services are free and completely confidential.

As we work to support a growing client base, please know how deeply grateful we are for the support of the community. We appreciate all of the ways you give—by volunteering, donating, and inspiring our staff and our clients every day. Thank you.

Shamecca Bryant, Executive Director

PROVIDING HELP, HOPE & HEALING

The number of clients we served over the previous year grew by 8%. Projections for the 2011-2012 and 2012-2013 fiscal years promise even bigger growth in the coming months.

13% of our clients were Spanish-speakers. We have increased our outreach to the Latino community by building personal relationships and collaborating with El Centro Hispano.

We partnered with the Family Violence Prevention Center to offer a Spanish support group for survivors of rape & sexual assault. And our therapy program provided short-term counseling to Spanish-speakers.

51% of our clients were survivors of rape or sexual assault. 13% were adult survivors seeking support for childhood sexual abuse. Others sought support for incest, sexual harassment, stalking, and more.

We provided 667 Community Education programs to youth and adults, 50% more than the previous year. 73% of those individuals were elementary school students.

We trained over 281 adults in proven child abuse prevention techniques. We are partnering with the Darkness2Light coalition to increase community mobilization around abuse prevention.

15% of our clients were men.

THE NUMBER OF SPANISH-SPEAKING CLIENTS
WE SERVED INCREASED BY 74%
